

Interior Least Tern

Sterna antillarum

Coloring code:

- | | |
|---------------|----------------|
| 1. black | 2. orange |
| 3. tan | 4. white |
| 5. green | 6. light brown |
| 7. light blue | 8. light gray |

The interior least tern is a small bird — eight and one-half to nine and one-half inches when full grown — with a black cap and a black line through the eye. They have a deeply forked tail and white outer tailfeathers. During the winter, adults have a blurred head pattern with mixed black-and-white feathers.